

JANUARY 2017

President's Message:

We begin 2017 with exciting news which is that we will be hosting the New York State Saengerbund Saengerfest in June 2018. Our request to host the Fest was made in part to help the Maennerchor celebrate its 150th anniversary. I can't help but wonder whether the founding fathers of the original Rondout Social Maennerchor ever thought their little social group would be the longest continually functioning ethnic organization in Kingston but here we are.

Throughout 2017 we will be sharing information with you about the Fest and other possible ways we will celebrate. The Maennerchor is also honored to be the first chorus to host the Saengerfest under its new format. Historically the Fest was held every three years, for three days and with competition as part of the weekend. The new format calls for the Fest to be held every two years, for two days and with no competition.

So, mark your calendars for Saturday, June 9, 2018. That is the date for the Fest concert/banquet/dance and we hope to see all of you there. The venue will hold up to three hundred people and we want to fill it! More information will appear in the next issue.

At the end of 2016, I specifically want to thank the following: Herman Koemel for putting together a truly super newsletter; Alina Nitzschner for her success with the Kaffeeklatsch which has become a standard first Sunday afternoon event for so many; Michael Scheunemann for developing the Stammtisch with input from participants; and, John Bruening for his steady work with the Thursday men's group.

To each and everyone, thank you for your support and work no matter what it is. Each one of you has something to offer and it is appreciated.

To all, a healthy and peaceful New Year.

Hildegard

INTRODUCING

by Doris Vogt & Christa Scheitz

Please take the time to extend a hand of friendship:

Edith travels extensively abroad often with students to Austria, Germany, Italy and Hungary. She still has a home in Minnesota as well as here in Kingston. She was a devoted daughter to her father, who was a resident at Ten Broek Commons. Our Heinz Vogt was also a resident at the time and he was so happy to have someone to speak German with.

Edith Borchardt

Edith joined the Maenner and Damenchor July 10, 2016. She was invited to join by fellow members Ruth Froehlich, Michael Scheunemann and Peter Weitze and she joined as a singer. She emigrated from Vienna in 1956 where she was born and settled in Kingston, NY, where she still resides. In 1961 she graduated from Kingston High School as salutatorian of her class. She then went to Vassar College and graduated with honors.

Edith traveled west to the University of California, Berkeley to pursue and M.A. in Comparative Literature. The following year, she became a Teaching Assistant in the German Dept. This was a turbulent time at Berkeley since it was during the Vietnam War and Edith remembers tanks rolling in and the University being guarded by soldiers. So she left that summer to study Latin in Garmisch-Partenkirchen in the Bavarian Alps. After passing the Latin requirement and her Ph.D. exam, she taught German full-time in nationally competitive adjunct and temporary positions while writing her dissertation at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, UC Berkeley, and the University of Illinois at Chicago Circle, Gustavus Adolphus College and St. Olaf College. From there, she went to Purdue University in Indiana, the University of South Alabama in Mobile, and to the Lewis & Clark College in Oregon where she finished her thesis on Heinrich von Kleist; her first book to appear in 1987. As you can see, Edith has a very impressive resume but we are not finished yet.

In 1985, the University of Minnesota, Morris, offered her a tenure track position which she accepted, retiring in 2011 as a full Professor of German with 26 years of service. Her specialty is German Romantic literature. She has taught all levels of German language, as well as literature from the Middle Ages to the present, including Germany Classicism, Romanticism, Post –War German drama, Austrian studies, and film. Her scholarship is interdisciplinary, encompassing English, French and Spanish literature as well.

Professor Borchardt is a writer and author as well. From 1988 until her retirement she has presented papers at the International Conference for the Fantastic in the Arts. She has published poetry, essays, short stories and scholarly articles. Her most recent book is Women in the Shadows (2008) a translation of Charles S. Chiu's "Frauen im Schatten" (1994) which deals with five prominent women in the former Austro-Hungarian Empire. She is currently translating Brigitte Hamann's biography of Crown Prince Rudolf of Habsburg.

Stephen Kelley

Steve became a member of the Club July 20, 2016 and joined as a worker. He was introduced to the Maennerchor by his father Roger, who has been a member for a while. Steve was born in Kingston, NY and currently lives in Port Ewen with his wife Tammy and their children Kyla and Joseph. Steve and Tammy are celebrating 13 years together.

Steve is a fire fighter and an EMT instructor in East Fishkill, NY. He is also studying to be able to teach at the college level. He attended both Suny Ulster and Suny Rockland. His major is Communications and his minor is History and hopefully, in about two years, he will get his degree.

This is one busy guy. He is affiliated with Hudson Valley Fire & Safety (part-time), the East Fishkill Emergency Services, Suny Ulster and is a volunteer with the Port Ewen Fire Department. In addition, he finds time to bring Roger to the Club on Thursday afternoons and has helped set-up for some of our Club events. He is an author of children's books and has written 'Becky and the New Fire Engine'. Eventually, there will be more books. Steve also enjoys hiking and fishing.

Joann Rose Fabiano Petruski

Joann was introduced to the Maennerchor and Damenchor by Robert Zentner. She was accepted for membership November 9th, 2016, and she joined as a worker – good news for some of us old-timers. We are always glad to have a willing new worker.

Joann was born in Kingston, NY and she has lived here her whole life. She graduated from Kingston High School and Dutchess County Community College, where she earned an Associate Degree as a Dental Assistant. She has been a Dental Assistant for 30 years and is employed at Pine Street Dental.

Joann has a daughter and a two year old grandson who she enjoys having on overnight stays. She enjoys helping others. She also is a member of the White Eagle Ladies Aux. In her spare time, Joann enjoys cooking, kayaking, shopping, going to casinos and the race track.

*Herzliches
Willkommen*

THE PERSONALS

Zum Geburtstag Viel Glück

Birthday Greetings to Vivian Longto, the eldest active singer in the New York State Sängerbund, who recently celebrated her 91st birthday.

Wir Gratulieren

Congratulations to Aaron McCasland, who has been a member of the Kingston Maennerchor and Damenchor since February 2014. He has been awarded the Mid-Hudson Study Council Excellence in Teaching Award. Aaron graduated from Kingston High School in 2008, while there he studied Spanish and German. He had studied Spanish in middle school, but when he found out that German was offered in Kingston, he was excited to take on that challenge. Because he had no previous German experience before beginning at the High School, he did a lot of independent work to catch up to his classmates who already had two years of study under their belts. Aaron continued on to SUNY Stony Brook and graduated with a BA in German Language and Literature with a minor in business and Russian. He graduated in May 2012 and was hired to teach high school German in the Red Hook Central School district in June of the same year.

Aaron teaches German levels 2, 3, and the International Baccalaureate German classes, as well as an introductory Spanish class. This award confirms, he is doing an outstanding job and the program continues to thrive. While teaching full time, Aaron completed his MS in Education at SUNY New Paltz with a concentration in school leadership with a final average of 4.0! In addition to his teaching load, Aaron is also the faculty advisor for the Model UN club, he started a German Club with plans to travel to Germany with a group of juniors and seniors in spring of 2018, and he is a union representative.

Aaron enjoys teaching the IB classes, because he is able to delve deeper into German literature, culture, and modern day issues. He likes broadening the horizons of his students and preparing them for a more globalized world. When asked why the interest in languages and why German in particular, Aaron said he was interested in languages because it gives him the ability to communicate with others and makes the world much more accessible.

German, he thought, was different than French and Spanish which are offered at most schools and it piqued his interest. Russian had the same effect in college. As far as future plans, Aaron is looking forward to a degree in administration as well.

Chorverband

I congratulate and thank all the singers and members of the Buffalo Schwaben Chor, President Christel Kasprzak, and Convention Chairperson Susan Schneider for their gracious hospitality in hosting our recent New York State Saengerbund Convention.

We had a successful weekend filled with concerned interest, meaningful discussion, and thoughtful deliberation as we ratified an innovative New York State Sangerbund Sangerfest Process. Vielen Dank to all the delegates and choruses for their commitment and dedication in helping define their current capabilities and resources in developing this new, realistic, and viable approach to future sangerfeste.

We also had time for some Spaß with Freundschaft und Kameradschaft as we celebrated Oktoberfest at Scharf's Restaurant and capped off the weekend with an inspirational Memorial Service and Concert at Gregor's Garden Grove.

Alles rucht sich irgendwann! What goes around comes around! The discussion and concerns of declining sangerfest participation began at our convention in Kingston, NY last year. We now applaud and thank the Kingston Maennerchor and Damenchor for stepping up to the plate to initiate and apply the new format and procedures by offering to host our next Saengerfest.

The convention delegates accepted their bid and our 38th Sangerfest will be celebrated in Kingston in June 2018 in commemoration of their 150th Jubilaum. We look forward to working with the Kingston Sangerfest Committee to implement our new approach and develop a memorable, fun filled sangerfest honoring our musical customs and traditions with freundschaft and gemutlichkeit.

Next Spring delegates will gather and bring their chorus suggestions and musical choices to help develop the framework of the 2018 Mass Chorus Concert.

Herm Koelmel

Stephen Kelley is a Firefighter/EMT, Author, and a member of our Kingston Maennerchor. He has written a marvelous children's book illustrated with great artwork by his brother James Morse. The storyline is about friendship:

Your childhood is what you make of it. Aiden, who grew up in the firehouse, begins his adventures when the fire siren sounds. On one special night, Aiden discovers a new friend in the firehouse: Becky, the new fire engine. But this isn't an ordinary fire truck-Becky is alive and real. Come join us as they both discover what true friendship is.

In an article published in the Kingston Times 18 August 2016 Steve explained that he got his inspiration from his Volunteer Fireman Dad Roger, who let him tag along at the Port Ewen Fire Department when he was a kid.

Steve also reads to kids in his Heroes Reading Program at the Robert Graves Elementary School where he reads about Firefighters, Veterans, and other service people.

Congratulations to member Steve Kelley and his brother Jim Morse who have created a 2nd book The Adventures of Becky the Fire Truck and are planning to create a total of nine books.

“Everything but politics”, this was our motto after our summer break. For a German, familiar with the culture of Stammtisch, this might sound like an oxymoron at first. However, it turned out to be a very refreshing concept, particularly in a fall season where it had been almost impossible to evade politics. Actually, for some who came to the Stammtisch it was the driving motive to attend the gathering round! In the average we had been about six people, sometimes one or two more, sometimes one less. This seemed to be a really nice number for having some very interesting “round table” talks.

Topics were not hard to find, often starting with recent personal events, such as dog birthdays or horse funerals or electronic cash transfers, we would often end up working out our German/English translation skills for words such as: “physical therapist, framing, deduction, hit and run” or many others. Also we quite frequently contemplated about philosophical and emotional aspects of language as such, such as mother tongue, being the language that one speaks “from his heart” or cultural reflections in idiomatic expressions. But as soon as those would become too much we had always at least one member who “grounded” us again by saying things like: “Das Schreiben und das Lesen ist nie mein Fach gewesen” (Reading and Writing has never been my subject.)

In general we have had lots of fun and enjoyed conversing in German only, no matter what the level and age - our youngest member is five and our oldest almost ninety!

In this spirit I am looking forward to start 2017 our third year of “Stammtisch”! The upcoming dates for our meetings will be: January 12th and 26th, February 9th and 23rd, March 9th and 23rd, and April 6th.

Of course there may be changes due to weather or something unforeseen. I would be grateful if you could contact me if planning to attend a meeting or recommending a friend. 845-527-4925

Spectator or Shepherd

Now is the time for all good people to come to the aid of their chorus.....

"It is not the critic who counts; not the one who points out how the strong person stumbles, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the person who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs, who comes short again and again, because there is no effort without error and shortcoming; but who does actually strive to do the deeds; who knows great enthusiasms, the great devotions; who spends themselves in a worthy cause; who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who at the worst, if they fail, at least fails while daring greatly, so that their place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who neither know victory nor defeat." Theodore Roosevelt

For almost 150 years those whose mutual interests in the cultivation of their Germanic heritage in language, music, choral singing and social friendships have gathered at the Kingston Maennerchor and Damenchor. During the past fifty years people with names like Bruening, Benzenhoefer, Birmingham, Brendle, Davis, Edling, Harms, Heigemeir, Koelmel, Kohler, Mann, Nitzschner, Stegner, Vogt, and many others have stepped forward to ensure the continued success and stability of our society.

Now, during the planning and development stages of our 150th Anniversary celebration including the 38th NYS Saengerbund Sangerfest in 2018, there are many opportunities for the next group of leaders to come forward and assume the mantle of shepherd with the fortitude to guide and advance our ideals.

Look for ways you can employ your talents and capabilities and volunteer to ensure, with a renewed determination, that the Kingston Maennerchor and Damenchor will continue to flourish and prosper.

Camino de Santiago

Road to Santiago
The Way of Saint James
Dorcinda Knauth

Last May, my brother called me up and said, "I'm quitting my job. Do you want to take a long walk with me?" Of course, I said. I love to walk! And that simple exchange is how we ended up, just a few months later, on the "Camino de Santiago," one of the oldest pilgrimages in the Christian tradition, that culminates in a visit to the church where the remains of St. James are buried in Galicia, Spain.

Pilgrims have been walking the Road to Santiago since the 9th Century AD, and you can tell a pilgrim by the scallop shell affixed to their backpack and, more often than not, a pilgrim staff. Traditionally, pilgrims start their journey from their front door step and make their way to Santiago, Spain in whatever direction makes sense for them to go by foot. Living across the Atlantic Ocean as we did though, we decided to take a plane to France, walk across the border through the Pyrenees and keep on heading westward, on an old network of roads and paths marked by yellow arrows.

With our scallop shells on our packs, we walked a total of 550 miles, never once taking a cab, bus, or taxi, though believe me, I was tempted a few times! We walked past cathedrals of such majesty and splendor, that we stood in awe. We walked past shepherds who waved hello, and through vineyards, stopping long enough to eat fresh grapes off the vine. We walked through lavish cities and the poorest villages, with populations of less than 20 people. Sometimes we walked with other pilgrims, learning their stories and dreams for their future. Sometimes we walked alone, never seeing another pilgrim for almost the whole day. We climbed mountains and walked through flatlands that seemed to stretch on to eternity. Some days were scorching and hot; others bitterly cold. Each morning, we started in the dark and into a sunrise that delighted us and warmed us. And each night we walked into the sunset, where we searched for our night lodgings, and ate a meal and drank Spanish wine with other pilgrims.

Along the way, a transformation happened in my heart that is different every time I try to describe it, and which I treasure. On the path, I learned that we are all heading in the same direction, and while we each make our own journey, it is sweetest if we can support each other along the way in camaraderie and friendship. It is ok to not know why we are doing something, or even where we will rest our head that night. It is enough to know that the answers to our most difficult questions lie within us.

When the journey was done, 550 miles later, we saw our final sunset in Spain over the Atlantic Ocean from the tiny peninsula of Finisterre, which means the End of the World. Looking across the vast expanse of the ocean, it felt very much like the end of the world, and for us, it marked the end of our journey. My heart knew that my friends and family, who I longed for, were just beyond those waters, and that I would see them soon.
